AZA GBAGYO FOUNDATION OUTREACH REPORT

DATE: Saturday, May 3rd, 2025

VENUE: Our Lady of Perpetual Help Cathedral Hall

1. Introduction

The Aza Gbagyo Foundation conducted a successful outreach program on Saturday, May 3rd, 2025, at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Cathedral Hall. The event aimed to support widows and students, reflecting the Foundation's commitment to community service, love for humanity, and making a social impact.

2. Preparations and Arrival

Team members, including volunteers and some board members, arrived at the venue by 7:30 AM to make necessary preparations, including setting up the hall and arranging food items designated as gifts for the widows.

3. Event Proceedings

- Opening Remarks:

The event was officially opened by Barr. Ogizi, who addressed the widows, confirmed attendance, and acknowledged the presence of 38 widows.

Rev. Fr. Emmanuel Abella welcomed the attendees with prayers, commending the Foundation for its act of love and generosity. He emphasized that giving is not about wealth but about a generous heart.

- Welcome Address:

Esther Dodo, the Executive Director, formally welcomed the widows and students, explaining the Foundation's mission and vision. She reiterated the Foundation's motto: "Living for Others" and outlined the purpose of the outreach.

- Health Talk:

Dr. Luper delivered a brief health talk on the importance of maintaining good health and the dangers of self-medication and drug abuse

4. Founder's Address

The Founder shared a heartfelt personal story about losing his mother 29 years ago and being raised by the society.

He expressed his commitment to giving back to society and urged the widows and mothers present to pray for him to fulfill his responsibilities diligently.

5. Distribution of Gifts

The event was followed by the distribution of gifts and each widow received the following:

- 12kg bag of rice
- 2 liters of palm oil
- 1 packet of Star Maggi cubes
- 1 packet of salt
- A cash gift of ₦5,000

A photo session followed the distribution of gifts, capturing memorable moments with the beneficiaries and the team.

ADDITIONAL OUTREACH IN NAKA

Mr Solomon represented the Foundation in Naka, where he reached out to additional 10 widows, bringing the total number of widows served to 48 and students empowered to 20.

STUDENTS EMPOWERMENT SCHEME

After attending to the widows, the Student scholarship empowerment scheme commenced with the Executive Director leading the session by confirming attendance of the students present.

Barr. Ogizi encouraged the students to stay resilient, optimistic, and open-minded, emphasizing that “Man gives from the abundance of the heart, not from wealth.”

The Founder addressed the students, emphasizing the importance of vision, purpose, and giving back to society. He shared that “It is not the location but the allocation that matters.”

The session concluded with a monetary empowerment for the students, followed by a closing prayer led by Emmanuel Igbakua.

CONCLUSION

The outreach concluded at about 1:30 PM with a sense of fulfillment and purpose.

The Aza Gbagyo Foundation continues to make a meaningful impact by living out its motto: “Living for Others.”
